

Vinculum Communications opens their Mexico headquarters in Lomas Anahuac, Mexico

SAN DIEGO, JUNE 06, 2005 (BUSINESS WIRE) – Vinculum Communications, Inc., ("Vincomm"), a premier provider of VoIP network carrier services and IP trunking solutions today announced the opening of their Mexico headquarters in Lomas Anahuac, Mexico.

The Mexico office will be managed and operated by President Israel Maya and Vice President Mario Kahn. The primary focus of the new location is to build a local presence within Central and coastal Mexico markets to expand the direct sales reach of Vinculum's IP trunking technologies. Maya intends to build a direct sales force to cater the IP trunking offerings to enterprise accounts and vertical markets looking to lower costs and improve outbound global call quality.

"Opening our offices in Mexico this year fully demonstrates our commitment to delivering VoIP services to our partners and vendors around the world" stated Scott Goodwin President of Vinculum. "It will provide our current customers better support and future customers' unparalleled quality and rapid deployment of our network carrier services in Mexico."

"I think this move by Vinculum is a step in the right direction and solidifies our presence within the Mexico market" stated Israel Maya President of Vinculum Mexico. "I look forward to the challenges ahead in building a solid core business around our all ready proven international network"

About Vinculum

Vinculum Communications, Inc. (Vincomm) is a San Diego, California — based, 214-licensed international long distance carrier, offering termination services to over 150 long distance carriers worldwide. The company's services allow customers to enjoy the highest quality, along with lower costs, increased margins and global coverage. www.vincomm.net